

The Job Title	Summer Camp Counselor
Reports to	Lead Camp Counselor
FLSA Status	Regular Full-Time or Part-Time / Non- Exempt (seasonal)
Last Revision Date	February 2024

POSITION OVERVIEW:

Connolly Ranch Education Center is seeking seasonal Day Camp Counselors to work collaboratively under the guidance of the Lead Camp Counselor and Community Programs and Camp Manager to create positive learning opportunities that support Connolly Ranch’s Mission. This position will be committed to connecting children and families to nature through farm-based education and encouraging the next generation of environmental stewards in a fun outdoor environment.

At Connolly Ranch, kids and families learn about farm life, the role of animals, ecology, sustainability, and an appreciation for nature. We teach organic gardening, the sources and benefits of healthy foods and knowledge of how nature works to sustain us. Connolly Ranch supports a diverse community with more than 9,000 people visiting each year through field trips, family classes, events, early childhood programs, seasonal camps and open farm days.

A day camp counselor will have the opportunity to work with children ages 3 through 16 to engage and have fun in nature. You will lead hikes, garden, play and learn about our farm animals, build forts, sing and dance, create art, and enjoy all the beauty that surrounds us at Connolly Ranch!

Start Date: June 12, 2024 (3 days of training + CPR certification)
